The Lemon-Its Uses as a Medicine. As a writer in the London Lancet remarks, few people know the value of lemon-juice. A piece of lemon bound upon a corn will cure it in a few days; it should be renewed night and in a few days; it should be renewed night and morning. A free use of lemon-juice and sugar will always relieve a cough. Most people feel poorly in the spring, but if they would eat a lemon before breakfast every day for a week—with or without sugar, as they like—they would find it better than any medicine. Lemon-juice used according to this recipe will sometimes cure consumption: Put a dozan lemons into cold water and slowly bring to a boil; boil slowly until the lemons are soft, then squeeze until all the juice is extracted; add sugar to your taste, and drink. In this way use one dozen lemons a day. If they cause pain, or loosen the bowels too much, lessen the quantity, and use only five or six a day until you are better, and then begin again with a dozen a day. After using five or six dozen the potient will begin to gain flesh and evice food. Hold on to the lemons, and still use them very freely for everal week.

drink in summer, or in sickness at any time. Prepare as directed above, and add sugar and water. But in order to have this keep well, after boiling the lemons, squeeze and strain carefully; then to every half-pint of juice add one pound of loaf or crushed sugar, boil and stir a few minutes more until the sugar is dissolved, skim carefully and bottle. You will get more juice from the lemons by boiling the plosion of the steamer Comfort, yestern was more disastrons than at first suppose liked, three persons are now known to have be killed, three persons still missing, and ab fifteen wounded fatally. GILMAN'S FORGERIES.

New York, October 3.—The excitemen caused by the exposure of the forgeries o Wm. C. Gilman was intensified by the dis covery that stock of the American, Evchang and Metropolitan banks also been forget veral large institutions were heavy losers The forgeries so far discovered aggregate $352,500, upon which Mi. Gilman raised $247,940. The belief that Mr. Gilman has committed suicide is generally credited in insurance and bank generally credited in insurance and bank circles. The principal losers were large corporations. Two money-lenders, whose names are not yet known, were reported as among the victims, one losing $28,000 and the other $20,000. The forgery, it was found, began January 16, 1876, scrip of the Atlantic mutual insurance company being altered from $50 to $5000. At first Mr. Gill. tered from $50 to $5000. At first Mr. Gilman operated slowly, but business losses crowding on him he became bolder, and forzery became almost an every day occurrence He dealt largely in scrip of the New York mutual marine, Commercial Mutual and Union insurance companies, but a full examination showed that the forgeries were strictly confined to the Atlantic Mutual insurance company and the Ex-change and Metropolitan banks. The rumer that the United States trust company had been defrauded by Gilman proves untrue.

The Episcopal Convention. Boston, October 3.-The triennial conven ion of the Episcopal church of the United States opened this morning at Trinity church in the presence of a vast concourse of people The body of the church was reserved for dele gates, four clergymen and four laymen fron each of the forty-five dioceses of the country There were also over two hundred clergymen and theological students present. At about eleven o'clock the bishops, nearly sixty in number, entered, Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, who date of consecration is 1832, heading the procession, and Bishop Perry, of Iowa, clos-ing it. The services were most impressive, Bishop Williams, of Connecticut, preaching the sermon. There are two bodies in convention; the house of bishops, forty-eight in number, Bishop Smith, presiding, and the house of clerical and lay deputies. The former meet in Trinity chapel, and the sessions will be private; the latter in Emanuel church, and will be public. and will be public.

After a session of the bishops had co-operation, is expected shortly. Prodigious quantities of munitions are going to the front.

The Carpetbag Senators.

> St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Some time ago ou pecial dispatches from Washington gave currency to a mysterious story about a plan of the Democrats to get hold of the organization of senate. The Republican majority was educed by the illness of Senator Morton to two. One of these, Senator Spencer, is sup posed to be absorbed in Black Hills mining and matrimonial speculations, and not likely to be present at the opening of the extra or regular session. It was hinted that another senator, not referred to by name, had bee won over by purchase, thus giving the Demo crats a majority of one. The story was ig nored or ridiculed at the time, but anothe announcement telegraphed by the same cor-respondent Friday night dovetails into this very neatly, the two making a credible nough relation. The latest addendum that Conover, a carpetbag senator from Flor-ida, intends to vote with the Democrats for he admission of the Democratic cla rom South Carolina and Louisiana. T eclares he will do in the interest of the Pres dent's southern policy, and without any refer ence to the organization of the senate, but of course the result will be to give the Demo-crats an effective working majority. Mr. Conover's pacificatory zeal is all very well, but if he carries out his scheme it will ably make a martyr of hira. He will be exceedingly fortunate if he escapes the unive sal imputation of having been bought. Another Bad Preacher. New York special to the Cincinnati En-quirer: Rev. Alfred Thompson, of the Free Methodist church, of Elyria, Illinois, was arrested in Jersey City, the other night, unde rather peculiar circumstances. Last spring Mr. Thompson's parishioners gave him permiswent to England, where he was born, in June of August, when he sailed for home. On th steamer was a female named Mrs. Cobham narried, but separated from her husban On the passage Mr. Thompson and she had frequent opportunities for discussing religion they became very intimate—so intimate that they went to a small hotel on West street, and there, it is alleged, took up their abode until the other day, when Mr. Thompson eyes were opened to the sinfulness of the li he was leading, and in his repentant mood he revealed to Mrs. Cobham the fact that he had a wife, and two children in Chicago. Then he disappeared, leaving Mrs. Cobham undoubted evidence of the sincerity of his repentance and an abiding interest in her welfare, in the fact that he took with him eleven sovereigns, a valuable gold watch, and some four hundred dollars worth of jewelry belonging to her. When Mrs. Cobham be-came convinced that Rev. Alfred Thompson had departed, she went to Jersey City an placed the matter in the hands of Detective rancis, who, with Officer Rowe, found of Exchange place and Hudson street, effecting the exchange of a second for a first-class ticket for Chicago. He made no attempt to deny his identity, nor to conceal the proper-ty, which he said Mrs. Cobham had made him a present of. He was locked up at the first precinct police station, and will be sent to New York for trial.

New York Tribune: A little book is a d, from the sharp pen of Elizur Wright widely known as an actuary and a writer on fe insurance. If the whole book were as striking as its title, it would probably be nore in demand than a popular novel, as it is named, Traps Baited with Orphan; or, What is the Matter with Life Insurance? The preface and the titles to the chapters are also of the lund kind, Mr. Wright being moved to inform his readers that he has been "extensively used as a sort of stool-pigeon in years gone by." He calls the present volume a "penitential labor," and proposes "to let e public know" the secret trouble of life surance. We can scarcely be mistaken in hinking that we have seen several effusion rom Mr. Wright which started off in a equally promising way. They all ended, after a more or less elaborate display of figures, in leading toward the moral which is very fully set forth in the present volume. That moral is, that Mr. Wright has invented a plan for new, and "the matter with" the compan is that they have not adopted his plan. consolation he offers to the public is that h plan will be used by a new company, which he calls a family bank. Perhaps the plan has all the merits Mr. Wright claims for it, and we should be loath to dispute his disinterestedness. Yet if any atter friend of ours abould push forward a "Family bank" in a similar way, we should be tempted to suspect that he had an ax to grind.
